100 Days of Prayer for Adventists

The Seventh-day Adventist World Church is calling on all members to participate in 100 Days of Prayer. The focus, which was initially for the General Conference session, is now changed to highlight Covid19 in light of the recent happenings, and also our relationship with Christ. The 100 days of Prayer began on Friday, March 27, 2020. Each day has a different reading and prayer focus.

The last week's focus was "An Unexpected Miracle". This week's focus is "Come Rest Awhile".

Due to the fast changing circumstances of the COVID 19 epidemic, materials will only be released two weeks at a time.

Materials can be accessed via <http://www.revivalandreformation.org/100days/translators>

There is also available an online Prayer room that can be accessed via <http://www.wepray.mobi/>. This is part of the official United in Prayer program of the General Conference of the Seventh-day Adventist.
